SIR,

I have the honour to submit herewith a list of Mysore students to whom Technical scholarships of Rs.15 per mensem each were awarded during the past official year to study in the School of Arts, Madras, and who pray for the continuance of their scholarships. The Superintendent of the School states that their progress was satisfactory and that their scholarships may be continued. I therefore request that Government may be pleased to renew their scholarships for another year from the dates noted against the names of the students.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

M. Shama Rao,

Inspector General.
